Hoofland's Column.

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Grange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it.

Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,
Eigth, below Coates Street.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY DEAD—A LIVELY FUNERAL DISCOURSE BY DON PLATT.

Don Platt, a well known Western radical politician, writes as follows to the Cincinnati Commercial, under date Mac-a-Cheek, May 17:

I wish to make a few observations of a philosophical sort, touching the late Republican party.

I assisted some twelve or thirteen years since at the birth of the party just demised, having traveled from the Mac-a-Cheek valley to Buffalo, carrying a plank for the platform on which the newly born was to be cradled, and my affections have grown with its growth to such an extent that its sudden death threw me into a state of profound grief, disturbed by indignation. I passed from lamentation to an indignation meeting, and from an indignation meeting to deep grief. But with reflection came consolation. I came to the consoling thought that I was not the only sufferer, and handing out my surplus affliction to my beloved country at large, I found my share could be carried without much inconvenience.

The immediate cause of its death was dyspepsia, aggravated by whiskey.

But the seeds of weakness and disease were planted in its birth. We began a party of reform, of agitation, of aggression, and we took into our embraces the old whig party, that was a party of conservatism, aggravated by great dignity and timidity. The result has been internal dissensions. The ultra reform party could not digest the conservative lump, and we have been afflicted with cholic, so to speak, that well nigh destroyed our usefulness. Our actions, in consequence, have been contradictory. While at one time we create a John Brown, and glory in John Brown as our greatest and best beloved, organized huge armies, fought out big wars and liberated a race, on the other hand we have been busy smoothing our war's wrinkled front with the decayed plasters of past wrong doing. It is called compromise—which means to give the devil your soul in a dignified, peaceful manner.

The last internal convulsion exhibited with great clearness the different elements. On the one side we had Butler, Stevens, Bingham, Logan, Sumner and Drake; on the other stood, in calm repose, Fessenden and Trumbull, while between floated another element, born of the revolutionary times, that had its marketable value, and fluctuated as either party bid.

Now, I am prepared to admit that Messrs. Fessenden and Trumbull were actuated by the highest and the most honorable motives. I do not believe they could be bought with money or swayed by prejudice. They felt that they were jurors, under oath, answerable to their God for the verdict they rendered. Nor do I blame them for responding as they did to the solemn question asked them by the Chief Justice. I believe that the thirty-five voting "guilty" were honorable, honest men. But in political life a blunder is worse than a crime, and Messrs. Fessenden and Trumbull blundered in belonging to the republican organization at all. They should have gone over to the party of Stanbery and Groesbeck, where the old whig dignity is preserved intact, and where conservatism is so intense that an ancient wrong is preferred to a new right, and where official position is so glorified that a halo is thorwn around an inebriated mule, than an all-wise Providence, through some inscrutable reason, has set on end and made our President.

When Impeachment was first broached the evidence was as well known as it was at the end of the trial. At the beginning Messrs. Fessenden and Trumbull should have made their fight. Failing to defeat it they should have resigned their positions, as honorable men, and washed their dignified hands of the responsibility. But they chose to reserve themselves for a conflict when their triumph would be our death, and are somewhat astonished at the popular howl of wrath and indignation that comes up over their dignified, honest, honorable stupidity.

We could have survived a blunder great as this is had it come alone, but it is the concluding act of a long series. Through the unsettled condition of a country suffering from civil wars we have developed more rascality than any organization ever called into existence. We have filled the offices with thieves and their pockets with stealings. We have organized rings that in turn create officeholders and control the government. Men go in poor and come out millionaires. For one dollar paid to the government from hard earned taxes, hundreds stick to the dirty fingers of official scoundrels. We have whiskey rings, Indian Bureau rings, manufacturers' rings, national bank rings, railroad rings, landjobbing rings and internal improvement rings. From the lowest officials up to Senators and Cabinet officers, the taint of corruption runs, until the people, dazed and confused, confound the right and listen with indifference to the threats of exposure.

When charged with all this they have responded, "Andy Johnson is corrupt and appointed scoundrels to office." Well, Messrs. Fessenden and Trumbull have, under oath, pronounced him not guilty, and let him go acquit.

At the end of a fearful war the people had a right to expect that the expenses of the Government should be brought back at once to a peace footing. They demanded a reduction of the army to what it was in 1860; that the useless monitors should be sold for old iron; that the hundred thousand thieves called office-holders should be dismissed, and the appropriations cut down to a reasonable expenditure.

We have replied that Andrew Johnson, who came in through assassination, has organized assassination at the South, and an armry of at least fifty thousand men is necessary to keep the peace. Messrs. Fessenden and Trumbull have voted not guilty, and let Andrew go acquit.

The people have expected that in our hands reconstruction at the South would progress with reasonable speed, and that unhappy region restored to a state of quiet and prosperity. The expectation might not be reasonable, for the blind bigotry that hurried us into a bloody war has developed in hate that, with stupid fury, casts aside all social and legal restraint. But we answer that our wise acts of legislation have been rendered null and void by an Executive that plants itself squarely in opposition to the law-making power. Now, Messrs. Fessenden and Trumbull vote "not guilty," and the accused goes acquit.

We awaken to the unpleasant fact that not Andrew Johnson, but the Republican party, has been on trial, and the sentence is a sentence of death, rendered by our own Senators, who have grown fat, rich and great through our organization. To have such a trial, with such a result (and Messrs. Fessenden and Trumbull knew it as well at the beginning as they did at the end,) is a great blunder—a blunder worse than a crime. It may be that the disgust felt by the country at large for the democratic peace party may call into existence a new organization; but the Republican party is dead, and we may as well gracefully admit the fact and accept the situation.

COLFAX ON FREE SPEECH.

In his letter of acceptance Schuyler Colfax says:

"If there had been no Republican party, a free press and free speech would be as unknown from the Potomac to the Rio Grande as ten years ago."

Perhaps Schuyler has not heard of the doings of the military Satraps in the South during the past year. Undoubtedly he is ignorant that an editor in Tennessee and another in South Carolina were lately imprisoned for strictures published upon military government; that several others have been compelled to relinquish their positions upon notice from the military authorities that free speech is a crime; that scores of newspapers have been warned to cease opposition to the "reconstruction" acts or be closed up. He does not know, probably, that Judges have been dragged to prison for refusing to empanel negro juries; that all public officers have been debarred from the right to speak in opposition to the Africanization acts of the Rump; that thousands of white men have been rejected from the registry list for electioneering for a white man's government, and that negroes have been mobbed, beaten and murdered by "loyal" mobs for daring to speak for and vote the Democratic ticket. Of course he has forgotten (Radicals have short memories, you know) the reign of terror which existed during 1862-3-4, during which more than one hundred Democratic newspaper offices were mobbed and destroyed, and scores of editors thrown into prison and their papers pesuppressed, excluded from the mails, &c., because they dared to publish truth. He never heard the tinkle of the little bell, which sent hundreds of honest and guiltless men to dungeons for the "crime" of telling the Radical despots and plunderers that they were hypocrites and scoundrels and that they were dragging the country down to the ruin and degradation which it is now so rapidly nearing. Certainly Mr. Colfax never knew or heard of these circumstances or he would not attempt to impose upon the American people so palpable an untruth as the above.—Patriot and Union.

THE SUPPLY OF COAL.

Punch and other jokers have had a good time laughing at the scientific and statistical prophecies of the failure of English coal mines to supply the great demand, some centuries hence. Even should these predictions not come strictly to pass, they may become virtually true, as the enormous stores of coal already opened in America must, when they are in full development, make English coal much less valuable, while the vast extent of new deposits continually being found make that probability a certainty. The Government geological survey of Nebraska has shown immense deposits to exist along the line of the Pacific Railroad. These, on the Laramie Plains alone, occupy a basin five thousand square miles in extent, and exhibit fine coal beds of five, and from that to eleven, feet thick. Colorado tells a similar tale, although her coal is lighter than either the bituminous or anthracite, being of later formation and of the variety called lignite. These stretch along the base of the mountains, the remains of vast forests that once waved along their sides. We are only beginning to know the treasures of this great continent.—N. Y. Times.

GENERAL GRANT'S SPEECH OF ACCEPTANCE.

The speech made by General GRANT in reply to the address of the President of the Chicago Convention giving him ceremonious notice of his nomination, is very brief, as was to have been expected; and it is as flat and commonplace as it is short. It contains but one thought beyond thanks and a promise to do his duty; and that thought is discreditable to him. We copy it as follows: "You have truly said, in the course of your address, that I shall have no policy of my own to interfere against the will of the people."

Such a servile utterance is a self-pronounced satire on General Grant's intellect and his moral independence.—He is told by General Hawley that he is expected to be the political thrall of the party that has nominated him, and he responds by saying that the expectation is well-founded, and that he will have no policy of his own. Having deserted the Democratic faith in which he was educated and given up the ideas on reconstruction and negro suffrage which he was known to hold two years ago, he naturally finds no difficulty in promising to have no political opinions in the future. The surrender of his mental independence is the price General Grant is willing to pay for an election to the Presidency. He avows his willingness to go into that office as a puppet, and let the Radicals pull the strings.

This abject pledge probably affords a correct measure of General Grant's capacity as a statesman. He does not propose to be "a pillar of state, but a weathercock to show which way the wind blows, veering as the popular breath changes and having no direction of his own. But the Presidency is no place for a man without ideas and destitute of a policy; who knows no rule of conduct but the servile one of doing as he is bid; and because it is bidden thinking it right. Such debility of understanding and servility of will cannot take shelter under the truism that, in a republican government, the will of the people ought to prevail. Certainly it ought; but their deliberate, settled will as expressed in the Constitution ought to prevail over their fitful impulses on some fleeting occasion. The Constitution is their permanent mandate. If by the will of the people be meant the caprice of a transient majority, it is not at all binding on the President. Unless we adopt the tyrannical principle that in a republican government the minority have no rights which the majority are bound to respect, it may be a base desertion of his duty for a President to have no policy of his own in opposition to the will of a majority. If one part of the community undertakes to oppress the other, it is the clear duty of the President to use all the influence of his great office to pretect the weak. The danger that majorities may become tyrannical is the reason for having a settled constitution; and as constitutions do not execute themselves, ours is so framed as to make the President the chief bulwark against the tyranny and oppression of domineering majorities. By swearing him, in a peculiar manner, to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution, and making his single will equal in legislative efficiency to the combined wills of nearly two-thirds of the members of both Houses of Congress, it has clothed him with a power which is prefectly idle and nugatory if it be his duty to have no policy of his own and never to resist the majority. If General Grant's servile view be the true theory of our government, why was authority given to the President to thwart the majority of Congress, and to hold that body completely in check unless the majority against him is fully two-thirds in both Houses? Our Constitution is built on the broad basis of human rights; it recognizes the rights of the minority as being as sacred as those of the majority; and it makes the President their defender by clothing him with the veto power for their protection. But General Grant declares, in substance, that if he is elected President there will be no more vetoes; that he will never have a policy in opposition to the will of the majority; that when a majority tyrannize he will be its subservient and willing tool. We are proud to say that no candidate for President ever before debased himself by such a servile abdication of all the sentiments that befit a patriot and a statesman.—N. Y. World.

A PIGGISH ILLUSTRATION.—A country girl several of whose sisters had married badly, was herself about to take the dose. "How dare you get married," asked a cousin of hers, "after having before you the unfortunate example of your sisters." Exclaimed the girl with spirit: "I choose to make a trial for myself. Did you ever see a parcel of pigs running to a trough of hot swill? The first one sticks in his nose, gets it scalded, and then draws back and squeals. The second burns his nose, and stands squealing in the same manner. The third follows suit, and squeals too. But still it makes no difference to those behind; but all in turn thrust in their noses; just as if the first hadn't got burned or squealed at all. So it is with girls in regard to matrimony—and now with this I hope you are satisfied."

Two of Brownlow's police recently outraged a negro woman at Memphis, Tenn. Who can beat that?

THE DESERTER ACT.

The case of Edward McCafferty against George Gruger, J. C. Dickson and Alexander Ale, election officers of Warriorsmark township, Huntingdon county, who had refused to receive the plaintiff's vote, came before the Supreme Court on appeal from the Common Pleas of Huningdon county, and was argued on Wednesday, at Harrisburg.

It was admitted that McCafferty had been drafted and had failed to report, and that a certificate to that effect had been presented to the defendants, as provided in the act of June 4, 1866, which disfranchises those whose desertion is so certified to; the question of the constitutionality of this act of 1866 was therefore squarely presented.

The Court reserved its decision, but the intimations thrown out by several of the Judges clearly indicate that the act will be pronounced unconstitutional; Justice Strong intimating that when the Constitution prescribes the qualifications of an elector, it is equivalent to a direct prohibition upon the Legislature to add any other qualifications.

COLFAX A KNOW NOTHING.—Colfax, the Radical candidate for Vice President, is a politician by trade, and has always been notorious in Indiana as a chronic office-beggar. He was an original Know Nothing, and as such was elected to Congress, being one of the most bitter and loud mouthed defamers of Catholics and of our foreign born citizens. Like others of his class, he naturally allied himself with the Republican party, when the fusion between the Know-Nothing and the Abolitionists took place. The resolution in reference to the naturalized citizens adopted by the Chicago Convention was merely a tub thrown to the whale; and when that is quoted every naturalized citizen will recall the antecedents of the party and of its nominee, Scuyler Colfax, THE KNOW NOTHING.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

WASHBURNE AND THE NEGRO DELEGATE IN GRANT'S PARLOR.

The Washington Express gives the following graphic sketch of the scenes and the incidents which transpired at the house of General Grant on the evening when the Committee from the Chicago Convention informed him of his nomination:

To the eye of the observant last evening was an interesting one, so far as the scenes and incidents transpiring in Gen. Grant's parlor were concerned. Each and every member of the Committee seemed particularly desirous to make himself conspicuous, especially the brave and renowned Logan, who who was ever gallant to the company present.

Chief manager Washburne the signpost of the Presidential candidate—impelled by duty—jumped around like unto a hen upon a hot griddle. He must be present at all introductions; he must bow every one in and every one out; he must hear all remarks made to his candidate, and if needs be, assist in the answer. To the ladies he was a perfect Charles the Tenth; to the committee a Grandfather Whitehead; to the press an exceeding inconvenience and a decided bore, with the anxious remark of "be sure you've got it right." As he stood at the refreshment table, smiling benignly upon his protege, and glancing askance at the different faces there presented, doubtless revolving in his mind, which he would send (when he became Secretary of the State) to this mission or that, his thoughts even forgot themselves, and his destruction of strawberries and cream was immense. Donnelly would have had no show with Manager Washburne last evening.

Grant and Colfax were near each other at the table, each enjoying an ice, when up stalked a Western member of the committee, with an inquiring mind for facts, and addressing General Grant, said: "Who writes your speeches, General?", General Grant looked at the committee man, but made no answer. The anxious member from the West again said: "We want to know; as Colfax can make his own speeches and they say you can't." General Grant turned away from the Speaker and made no answer. Colfax turned to the man from the West and requested him not to make any such remarks in future.

The great feature of the evening, however, was the presence of the negro delegate from North Carolina.—His name is J. H. Harris, a delegate in the Chicago Convention from the Fourth District of North Carolina, late a member of the North Carolina Constitutional Convention, a candidate for Congress (he declined however, in favor of a carpet bagger,) and now a member of the committee to apprise the Radical nominees for their good luck at Chicago.

He was introduced, of course, by the immense manager Washburne, but neither General Grant, Colfax, the ladies present, nor any other Great Radical Monguls seemed to know Brother Harris. The company at one time were nearly all crowded in the back pralor, while Harris was observed standing solitary and alone in a corner of the front parlor room. There he remained half an hour—the observed of no one except the reporters, who proceeded to take side notes of Brother Harris' solitary condition. It was a fact to which many can testify, that neither Grant nor Colfax, save at the introduction, took any notice of Harris during the evening. He was like our Jake on a pic-nic, "not fixed"—or poor Sambo at a dance, "without Dinah being dar."

Gen. Hawley, Gen. Logan, nor any of the larger Radical guns deigned to notice this practical innovation of black upon white. He was not noticed by the politicians, and only pitied by the reporters. He "stuck" however, remaining until supper; secured a place at the table, and like all true breeds of the African type, did full justice to ices, berries, and sweatmeats, generally.

THE EVILS OF OUR FINANCIAL SYSTEM.

It is on the laboring and producing classes of this nation that the evils of the infamous financial system of this country, introduced under Republican rule, are now falling. They, after all, must pay the whole tax raised by the system on the industry of the country. This system grinds the face of the poor, depresses their energies, disheartens their spirits, embitters their life, vitiates their social habits, and impairs the important sense of the equal dignity of human nature.

But it is in its moral effect that the injury is deepest and deadliest. The heart of the nation is corrupted, and its best principles, from which alone a sound prosperity and happiness can proceed, depraved. An effect is produced analagous to that on the character of a gambler. The curse of avarice enters and demoralizes it; and deadening every good sentiment of justice, virtue, high mindedness, benevolence, frugality, gives birth to a sordid selfishness, a thirst after wealth as the supreme good, a restless discount, a recklessness of means, a disregard of the sanctity of promises, and indifference to debt, and a fondness for display and luxury. How far these fearful symptoms of the worst of all possible evils—national demoralization—have been manifested during the last six years every one can judge for himself. He can read the long catalogue of the crime and beastliness for himself in the daily journals and the proceedings of our courts.—Evening Herald.

GEARY has made little use of his official position except to inflate himself and to pardon the criminals with whom he has long consorted. No governor of our state has ever used the pardoning power to such an extent, yet only those of his own party have been able to secure his services.

DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL,

HON. CHARLES E. BOYLE,

of Fayette County.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL,

GEN. WELLINGTON H. ENT,

of Columbia County.

DEATH OF EX-PRESIDENT BUCHANAN.

As we were going to press, last week, we received the sad intelligence of the peath of JAMES BUCHANAN, and were obliged, for want of space, to confine our announcement of the melancholy event, to a simple statement of its occurrence.

MR. BUCHANAN was born at Stony Batter, Franklin county, Pa., April 22, 1791, and died at Wheatland, near Lancaster city, on Monday morning, June 1, 1868. He graduated at Dickinson College, in 1809, being then just eighteen years of age. In 1812 he was admitted to the practice of the law, at the Lancaster Bar, and one year afterward was elected to the lower house of the State Legislature, to which body he was subsequently re-elected. During the war of 1812-15, he was a volunteer soldier and served in the campaign against the British at Baltimore. In 1820 he was elected to Congress, to represent the Lancaster district, which had previously been carried against his party by heavy majorities. In 1831, having served ten years in Congress, he declined a re-election, but was appointed, by President Jackson, Minister to Russia. During his Congressional service, he became distinguished as the opponent of the Bankrupt Law, the advocate of a tariff for revenue and the supporter of the famous "Monroe Doctrine." In 1828 he succeeded Daniel Webster as Chairman of the Judiciary Committee of the National House of Representatives, a distinction which singled him out as the first lawyer in that body. As minister to Russia, he completed the first commercial treaty between the United States and that country. In 1833 Mr. Buchanan was elected to the U. S. Senate, in which body he ranked with Clay, Webster and Calhoun, whom he often met in the onset of debate, in the discussion of the great questions which then agitated the American public. When Mr. Polk became President, he was appointed Secretary of State, and under his premiership, was made the brilliant administration which added a new empire to this country and gave us untold wealth of the acquisitions on the Pacific. At the close of President Polk's term, Mr. Buchanan retired from public life, but was re-called from his retirement in 1853, by President Pierce, who appointed him minister to the court of St. James. In 1856, he was nominated by the Democratic Party, as its candidate for the Presidency, and was triumphantly elected. The history of the eventful period during which Mr. Buchanan occupied the Presidential chair, is fresh in the popular recollection, and, therefore, needs not be repeated here. Suffice it to say, that it was the chief desire of President Buchanan to administer the affairs of Government in such manner as would most conduce to the peace and happiness of the whole people. This fact was apparent in all his measures. He dreaded, with the honest fear of a true patriot, the awful portents of approaching civil war. To avoid such a war, was the purpose which underlay all his dealings with the vexed questions of slavery and its concomitant issues. That no single hostile gun was fired until after his successor was installed in office, shows how successfully his purpose was accomplished.

The writer of this article, knew Mr. Buchanan intimately during the last eleven years. But here let us pause. The tear of sorrow is the only befitting eulogy. He was our friend. We mourn his departure; let others write his epitaph. The world will praise him soon enough, now that it has lost him.

WILL HE DO IT?

Will Grant resign? He holds an office now worth about $20,000 per annum. He has been presented with elegant mansions in New York, Philadelphia and Chicago, worth hundreds of thousands of dollars. Hasn't he got about enough? At any rate, if he wants to be President, hadn't he better give up his present office? The people don't want one man to own everything and wield all the power.

THE Hollidaysburg Standard has been grately enlarged, and clothed in a new and beautiful dress. The "gay and incomparable" Traugh is always doing something to improve his paper. Success to him!

ULYSSES ON THE PLATFORM.

Some people doubted whether Grant would stand upon the Chicago Negro Suffrage Platform. To such we commend his letter accepting the radical nomination, which is as follows:

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 29.—To General Joseph R. Hawley, President of the National Union Republican Convention: Informally accepting the nomination of the National Union Republican Convention of the 21st of May instant, it seems proper that some statement of views, beyond the mere acceptance of the nomination, should be expressed. The proceedings of the Convention were marked with wisdom, moderation and patriotism and, I believe, express the feelings of the great mass of those who sustained the country through its recent trials.

I indorse their resolutions, and, if elected to the office of President of the United States, it will be my endeavor to administer all the laws in good faith, with economy and with a view of giving peace, quiet and protection everywhere. In times like the present it is impossible, or at least eminently improper to lay down a policy to be adhered to, right or wrong, through an administration of four years.

New political issues not foreseen are constantly arising, the views of the public in regard to old ones are constantly changing, and a purely administrative officer should always be left free to execute the will of the people. I always have respected that will, and always shall. Peace, and universal prosperity its sequence, with economy of administration, will lighten the burden of taxation while it constantly reduces the national debt. Let us have peace. With great respect, your obedient servant, U. S. GRANT.

"I indorse their resolutions." That is: "I, Ulysses S. Grant, agree to run for President on a platform which approves of making voters of 600,000 ignorant and degraded Negroes." "I always have respected the will of the people and always shall." That is: "If the people elect me President on the Chicago Platform, I will take it that is their will that Negro Suffrage should be established, and I will see to it that it is done." Yes, we understand you, 'Lysses!

NO POLICY.

'Lysses made a speech the other day. He opened his mouth and "put his foot in it." He was informed by the chairman of the Sutlers' committee, that he was nominated for President, by the "National Union Republican party." 'Lysses started out as follows: "Unaccustomed as I am to public speaking," &c. Now, this is no joke, but a solemn truth. No Radical paper will dare deny that we quote correctly. Think of it! A President who begins a speech like a six year old school-boy! We heard a "Republican" remark, (after reading this grandiloquent opening) in the scriptural phraseology of Ben. Wade, "Well, I'll be ——"! But the closing of 'Lysses' remarks, was still more ridiculous. After pronouncing about a dozen sentences, he said: "If I should be elected, I will have no policy to interfere with the people!" Well, but, Mr. Grant, the people want the government to have some sort of policy, and, what's more, they want to know, before they vote, what that policy is to be. "No policy" will not do.

ON DEPOSIT.

In the State Guard, of June 4, we find the following startling announcement:

"Conceal it as we may, the United States Senatorship is already in the market. Money is already on the deposit to be used in that election among legislators, so that the people might as well at once be put on their guard."

Here is one of the secrets of Radicalism exposed by its leading organ at the State Capital. What do you think of it, oh! ye good-natured ones who have voted indiscriminately for Tom, Dick and Harry as members of the legislature, contenting yourselves with the simple fact that their names were printed upon the "Republican" ticket? When your own State organ puts you "on your guard," is it not high time that you give the matter some attention.

IF "No Policy" Grant had had his way, President Johnson would have been removed from office, and the government overturned. He urged Senators to vote for conviction. Is such a man fit to be President?

PROSCRIPTION.—Merciless proscription is the order of the day whenever Radicals hold the reins of power. Our Girondists can expect no quarter from the Jacobins of the dominant party, although the latter are unable to use the guillotine like the prototypes of the French Revolution. But our Jacobins do all that they dare and are able to do in the way of proscription. Thus a proposition for a vote of thanks to Chief Justice Chase for his conduct during the Impeachment trial has, for obvious reasons, been promptly rejected by the Senate, which has also rejected the nomination of Mr. Stanbery as Attorney General because he acted on that trial as counsel for the President. It is safe to predict that the nomination of Mr. Reverdy Johnson as Minister to England, or that of any of the other eighteen Senators who voted against the conviction of the President to any office of similar dignity and responibility, will be as summarily rejected. The Congressional terrorists can neither forget nor forgive. The opponents of their partisan schemes are doomed to proscription.—N. Y. Herald.

ALL HAIL OREGON!

The Pacific to the Atlantic Greeting!

BUTLER'S APPLE-BLOSSOMS STILL DROPPING!

1,000 Democratic Majority in Oregon!

A Democratic Congressman Elected!

The Legislature Almost Unanimously Democratic.

Good b'ye, Impeacher Williams!

Farewell, 'Lysses and Schuyler!

Oregon takes her place among the glorious list of redeemed and regenerated States. For nearly ten years she has been under the iron rule of Radicalism, but at last she has burst asunder her fetters, and now stands forth, free and pure and bright in her renewed Democracy.

The Democratic candidate for Congress, has been elected by about 1,000 majority. The Legislature is almost unanimously Democratic, which secures the election of a Democrat to the U. S. Senate, in place of G. H. Williams, Radical Impeacher. At the last election the Republicans carried the State by about 500 and in 1864 by a much larger majority. "Things is workin'!"

ABYSSINIA.—We have received a copy of Sir Samuel W. Baker's new book—"Exploration of the Nile tributaries of Abyssinia," from the Publishers, O. D. Case & Co., Hartford, Conn. At this time anything pertaining to Abyssinia, its inhabitants, animals, products and climate is particularly interesting. The author of this work gives a record of a trip in search of the head waters, or sources of the Nile, and all the scenes and incidents of the journey are stated so minutely and intelligibly that the reader will almost fancy himself traveling over the route, viewing the scenes with his own eyes and taking part in the incidents. Although minute in descriptions of the country, the reader is not wearied therewith, as the information is all important, and just the kind that is sought after, but seldom found, in histories. It is the little things, often passed by unnoted, that convey to the mind the true character of a people and a country. The work abounds in descriptions of travels over deserts, hunting the elephant, hippopotamus, rhinoceros, lion, crocodile and other game in that country, the character of the inhabitants of the country, their mode of living, etc. The work is dedicated to the Prince of Wales. The fact that his wife accompanied him throughout all his travels, will make it a work of interest to all lady readers. Price $3.50 in handsome muslin binding, and forwarded by mail post paid, on receipt of price.

HISTORY OF THE 104TH REGIMENT.—We are under obligations to Gen W. W. H Davis, of Doylestown, Pa., for a copy of his History of the 104th Regiment of Pennsylvania Volunteers. Gen. Davis commanded this regiment during the war, with great gallantry and distinction, and his affection for his old companions in arms, has induced him not only to exert his influence and contribute his means to the erection of a monument to his deceased comrades, (which was inaugurated the other day) but also to preserve in print, the record of the organization and services of this brave body of soldiers. The book is well written and neatly printed.

SLANDER OF THE DEAD.—The State Guard is pilloried in eternal infamy, by its article of June 2, in regard to the death of Ex-President Buchanan. The defamation of the dead, is as cowardly as it is brutal; and the man who is capable of doing a thing so foul and dastard, has no claim upon the respect, or even the toleration of mankind. But what shall be said of the man who libels the memory of his benefactor, of a deceased friend, to whom he owes nothing but honor and gratitude! Let the public pass its own judgment.

It is not our purpose to vindicate the memory of Mr. Buchanan from the unjust and gratuitous aspersions contained in the article to which we allude. Impartial history will disperse forever the cloud of false and perjured witnesses that would obscure the shining fame of that illustrious man. The thousands of heart-stricken mourners, from all parts of the country, who followed the remains of the dead statesman to their last resting place, at Lancaster, refute and rebuke all such evil-minded persons, and the day is not far distant when they will be remembered only to be scorned and loathed by every true and high-minded man.—Morning Patriot.

A gentleman who visited Ex-President James Buchanan a few days before his death writes thus to the Cleveland Plain Dealer:

"At the time of my visit he had just finished opening and reading his daily mail—which was perfectly appaling—and among other letters he read me portions of those received that day by the venerable Wm. Allen, ex-Senator from Ohio, from Francis Thomas, ex-Governor of Maryland, now in Congress, and a political opponent, and from Daniel Sturgeon, ex-U. S. Senator from Pennsylvania, and others from his friends, which showed the estimation in which he was held by those who know him best. Mr. Buchanon probably received a bushel of letters per day, and of these, he informed me, more than three fourths were applications for his autograph, both from Europe and America."

NEWS AND OTHER ITEMS.

—The young married women in Hungary, the land of pretty women, have recently been highly excited about the the important question which one of them is to be the wet nurse of the expected baby of the Queen of Hungary, as the empress of Austria is called in the land of the Magyars. It has been given out that the handsomest and strongest young married woman was to suckle the royal and imperial baby, and over a hundred photographs were sent to the doctor who was to choose the nurse. This modern Paris decided in favor of a beautiful young woman from Seresgas, who has already arrived at Pesth, where she is the observed of all observers. She is to receive five thousand florins for her trouble, and a liberal pension for her whole life.

—A trance story comes from Cleveland, Ohio, where a nice young woman died in the usual orthodox manner of typhoid fever and was "straiked" for the coffin. Her mother, however, observed that the body still retained its warmth, which we must confess was a singular circumstance for a corpse, and although the physicians seem to have found nothing out of the way in that, she delayed the funeral until, a door violently slamming, the sleeper was awakened and is now getting well. According to her account, she rather enjoyed the trance state, except for the disagreeable uncertainty whether she would be burried alive.

—Governor Crawford, of Kansas, received despatches on Saturday last, stating that several hundred Cheyennes were fighting the Kaws on the Reservation of the latter. The authorities of Fort Riley refused to send troops to the scene of action. It is also reported that a large number of Indians from the plains are committing depredations in the vicinity of Cottonwood Falls. Five hundred of them passed Marion Centre, killing and stealing all the stock they could find. Settlers brought their families to Cottonwood Falls for protection.

—Four years of war and a national debt as huge as England rolled up in a hundred years of war, that is the record of the first Republican administration. Four years of peace with utterly unfettered party power, with a majority in Congress able to override vetoes at will, but the Union not yet restored, industry not yet revived, government not yet established, the tariff not yet reduced, taxes not yet cut down, society not yet composed, commerce still paralyzed; that is the record of the second Republican administration.

—Some persons who were hunting in the woods near Meriden, Miss., recently, made a shocking discovery. There lay a dead negro and there lay a dead hog. The strangest part of it is, the hog had the man by the throat, the tusks deep buried in the flesh, holding on "like grim death to a dead nigger." This desperate bite, which undoubtedly killed the negro, is supposed to have been given in a last struggle on the part of the hog to revenge a personal injury which resulted in the hog's death—the hog was half skinned.

—A case of libel was recently disposed of at Norristown, resulting in conviction. The sentence was ten dollars fine and one year at hard labor in the county prison! The libel consisted in the utterance of defamatory words, written on the shutters of a school house relative to a young girl. Persons disposed to defame the characters of others can learn a lesson from the result of this case.

—The letter from the Emperor of China to the President was contained in a Walnut box some two feet in length. It is a veritable work of art, different, indeed, from ordinary epistles in style, size and chirography. It measures twenty-five feet in length, is written in Chinese from beginning to end and contains enough of parchment to furnish a dozen drums.

—A large number of mounted policemen were put on duty in the Federal Capital on Wednesday and Thursday nights to prevent a repetition of Tuesday night's bloody scenes. Gangs of armed negroes were dispersed in various quarters, and many arrests were made of suspiciously-acting blacks, who were invariably found to be armed with knives, razors and pistols.

—After the vote on impeachment it is said that Fessenden and Nye met in one of the Washington city cars. The conversation was short, sharp and decisive. Nye made some remarks about the vote, which Fessenden answered in an angry tone by saying: "Yes sir, you had not the pluck to do as you thought right."

—"Ah, mum," said a beggar to a lady who had just given him a dollar, "If it hadn't been for this I'd been driven to something desp'rit—something I've long feared I'd come to at last." "What is that, poor man?" "To work, mum," responded the unhappy man, with a melancholy shake of the head,

—A noteworthy incident of the visit of the Chinese embassy, now in Washington, was the hoisting of the flag of the empire of China at half-mast on last Thursday a week, in honor of the memory of ex-President Buchanan. It was the first Chinese embassy flag ever raised in this country.

—Massachusetts Yankees plundered the tomb of the Putnam family, at Danvers, Mass., recently, stealing the skeletons and selling them to bone manufacturers. As they stole the silver plates from the coffins, the robbers are supposed to be relatives of Beast Butler.

—The New Orleans clergymen complain that "bands of politicians, attended in some instances with music, traversed the parishes on Sundays, calling the colored people away from their sanctuaries for many weeks to political harangues." This is the Radical method of elevating the blacks to a proper conception of their moral duties.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Results of Forney's Effort to get up an Enthusiasm for Grant and Colfax are shown in the news received on the 3d June from Washington city. As no portion of the respectable people of the country seemed disposed to manifest any cordial approval of the platform or nominees of the Chicago Military Despotism-Negro Supremacy Convention, or of Grant's Napoleonic letter of acceptance, it became necessary for Forney to appeal to the negroes to declare their adherence to Massa Grant. Below we have the results:

"Forney made an incendiary address to the negroes from a window of the Chronicle office, inciting them to vengeance on the whites, which had the effect to render them perfectly uncontrollable. The police were perfectly powerless; and the negroes rushed along the streets with such fearful taunts and abuse that the whites were compelled to confine themselves to their houses. Bowen, the negro candidate for Mayor, also made an address complimenting the negroes on their capacity for self-government. Bands or drunken, lawless negroes, maddened with liquor and driven on by the vile, riot-inciting harangues made by white and colored speakers, paraded around the streets hooting and rioting, killing and robbing at their will.

"Among the incidents in front of the City Hall was a speech made by a colored man from the steps to a large crowd of his compatriots. In the course of it he denounced those colored men who turned traitors to their race by voting the Democratic ticket, and advised his hearers to kill them—'put it to them quietly.' The sentiment was loudly applauded with enthusiastic cries of 'we will.'

"We will commence with a murder, the victim being a white man, named John Faulkner. The affair occurred about 12 o'clock on Wednesday night, on Pennsylvania avenue, near Kimmel's alley. An unknown negro cut Faulkner in the right arm with a razor, from the effects of which he bled to death.

"The next case to chronicle is the murderous assault of a crowd of negroes upon a boy named George T. Handley, aged 19 years. This outrageous affair occurred at 10 o'clock at night, on Eighth street, near Seventh, while the crowd were around Bowen's house on H street. Handley was knocked down, and then cut with dirks or razors on both sides, on his hips and legs. His coat was literally cut to pieces with some kind of sharp instrument. He received several flesh wounds on the shoulders and arms, and a pistol shot wound on the right shoulder. The rascals left him on the pavement supposing they had killed him, as one of them was heard to remak, 'we settled his hash.'

"The neighborhood of Bowen's house seemed to be the favorite spot for the perpetration of mob violence. After the murderous assault on the boy Handley, and he was removed away from their wrath, these brave rowdies marched back to the front of Bowen's house. Shortly after, another crowd of negroes came up Seventh street hooting, hurrahing, and evidently bent on mischief. As they turned into H steet from Tenth, some one cried out, 'Hurrah for John T. Given.' The mob answered 'Kill him,' etc. A rush was made, bricks were thrown and pistols fired, and the greatest confusion and uproar ensued.

"One of the greatest outrages of the night, which has yet come to our notice, was the assault upon Herman Schmidt, proprietor of the restaurant, corner of Eleventh street west and F street north. The negro tools of Radical rule rushed into Mr. S's house, knocked him down, and beat him in a terrible manner, robbed his drawer of $42, carried away eleven bottles of whisky, broke everything to pieces, and retired to other scenes of riot and and bloodshed. No arrests have yet been made for this outrage."

Shameful Conduct of the House Radicals.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—In the House, this afternoon Judge Woodward, of Pennsylvania, obtained the floor, and offered a resolution of respect to the memory of ex-President Buchanan, and providing for the appointment of a committee of seven members to attend the funeral of the deceased, on the part of the House of Representatives. The resolution was read, when several Radical members objected to it, alleging, as an excuse, that it substantially endorsed Mr. Buchanan's administration. This, however, was not true, as will be perceived by reading it in your regular report. After a proposition by Mr. Stevens to strike out some portion of the resolution, and the offer of a substitute by Mr. Blaine, of Maine, Mr. Farnsworth (Radical), of Illinois, moved to lay the original resolution, as introduced by Judge Wooward, on the table. The Democrats demanded the yeas and nays, and they were ordered, resulting—yeas, 74 (all Radicals), nays, 46, so the resolution was laid on the table. Among those who voted in the affirmative was Mr. O'Neill, of Philadelphia. It may be stated in this connection that before the introduction of the resolution the Democratic members of the Pennsylvania delegation were assured by some of their Radical colleagues that they would make no opposition to its passage. One of the members who gave this assurance was Mr. Broomall, and yet he voted to lay it on the table.

WAHSINGTON, June 8.

Woolley was brought into active life again this afternoon, in the House, by Mr. Butler, who offered a resolution that all communications addressed by him to the House of Representatives should be placed in the hands of the Managers by the Speaker or Sergeant-at-Arms, for investigation and report. The resolution led to considerable debate in the House, which became somewhat exciting at one time. It appears that this subject was brought up by Mr. Butler from the fact that Woolley had sent to the Speaker a communication covering thirty pages of foolscap, in relation to his arrest and confinement, which he desired to have read to the House. Mr. Butler was informed of this, and prepared the resolution presented. During the debate Woolley's counsel, who were upon the floor of the House, withdrew the paper from the hands of Mr. Colfax, in order to prevent its falling into Mr. Butler's hands. Quite a number of Republicans took side with the Democrats on this question, among them Garfield, Schenck, E. B. Washburne, Blaine, Plants, Farnsworth, Ingersoll and Lawrence, of Pennsylvania. The resolution was agreed to by a vote of 64 ayes to 61 nays. As soon as the vote was announced Mr. Eldridge moved to suspend the rules, that he might introduce a resolution discharging Woolley from custody, to be preceded by the reading of Woolley's written statement. This, by a strictly party vote, the House refused to do, but the Democrats insisted on calling the yeas and nays on such suspension, and it was voted down.

Campaign Gazette!

REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT, Civil Liberty and Constitutional Rights!

NO STANDING ARMY!

NO FREEDMEN'S BUREAU!

NO NEGRO STATES!

White Men Must Rule America!

"Light, more light!" is the startling cry of the honest people groping in the darkness of Radicalism. "Light, more light!" shouts the groaning taxpayer, bending under the load which a Radical Congress has heaped upon him. "Light, more light!" is the pleading cry that comes to us from those who earnestly seek a remedy for the disease that is tugging at the vitals of the nation. Look and ye shall see! Read and ye shall know! The BEDFORD GAZETTE, for the Presidential Campaign, will be a complete compendium of political news, speeches, documents and every thing that pertains to a political canvass in the columns of a weekly newspaper. It will be published from the first day of June until the seventh of November, next, at the following low terms, cash in advance:

One copy,	$ .75
Ten copies,	6.00
Twenty copies,	11.00
Fifty copies,	25.00

Not only should every Democrat have his county newspaper, during the coming campaign, but he should likewise make it a point to furnish his Republican neighbor a copy. This is the plan upon which our opponents have acted for years, and it is about time that Democrats do something of the same sort. NOW, GO TO WORK and put your Democratic newspaper into the hands of every Republican who will read. If you will do this you will accomplish more good in six months than you will by any other means in six years. Democratic politicians, throughout the county, are enabled, by the above low terms, to circulate Democratic newspapers at a very small cost. We appeal to them to see to getting up clubs, and to see to it in time. Now is the time to sow the seed. After a little while the heat of passion and prejudice will beam upon the public mind in all its intense fierceness, and then seed-time will have passed. Friends, let us hear from you!

ENLARGEMENT.

At the close of the present volume, on the first of August next, the GAZETTE will be enlarged to thirty-two columns, and will then be one of the largest weeklies in the State. As this enlargement will entail considerable expense upon us, we ask all who are in arrears to pay up promptly. Cannot one thousand of our subscribers pay in advance. On the first of August we will begin the publication of a Roll of Honor, which will contain the names of all subscribers who pay for their paper in advance. Now friends, let us see whether this list cannot be made to run up to one thousand names. One half of our subscribers, at least, should pay in advance.

"SALEM, Oregon, June 1.—Oregon gone largely Democratic. Member of Congress elected, and Legislature nearly unanimous. J. W. NESMITH."

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—The election in Oregon, June 1, resulted in a Democratic triumph. The Democratic candidate for Congress was elected by 1,000 majority. Portland County gives 21 Democratic majority. The Legislature and county officers are nearly all Democrats. The Radical majority at the last election was 553.

Indian Hostilities: Pacific Railroad.

ST. LOUIS, June 5.—The Helena (Montana) Herald has advices from Fort Beauford, along the Upper Missouri River, that there is a prospect of the renewal of Indian hostilities, and that the government is preparing for a fight. It is reported that the government has chartered a steamer on the Missouri river for the purpose of transporting troops and supplies, and making other preparations for a general Indian war.

Regular trains will commence running next Monday three hundred and eighty-six miles west of the Missouri River, on the Kansas Pacific Railroad, the present terminus of the road.

THE APPLE BLOSSOMS AGAIN.—During the examination of Collector Webster, of Baltimore, by the impeachment committee, the witness was pretty severely badgered by Mr. Butler, and the New York World says: "One of the questions asked by Butler was as to how he (Webster) knew the President would be acquitted to which Webster answered, 'Well, General, I do not really know, but I suppose it was much the same way as you knew how impeachment would result when you telegraphed to New Hampshire that conviction was certain; that Wade and prosperity would come in with the apple blossoms.' This sally from Webster was badly relished by Butler."

RASCALLY.—A strenuous effort was made, by certain narrow minded leather-heads, to bring about the impression that the ceremonies of decorating the soldier's graves, on last Saturday, was to be a political affair!—Inquirer.

"Certain narrow minded leather-heads" did make arrangements to wind up the ceremonies of the day, with a political meeting, and the bills for the same were printed at the Inquirer office, before the post commander of the G. A. R., of this place, invited the Democratic soldiers to participate in the affair. As soon as the latter had consented to do so, the bills were at once distributed and the cloven foot of the "narrow minded leather-heads" was apparent to every one. These are the facts in the matter, and we challenge the Inquirer men to deny them. Had it not been for the nefarious attempt to make political capital of the sacred ceremonies of the day, and turn the very graves into partisan account, the day would have passed off harmoniously, as it should have done. Does any one doubt that the "narrow minded leather-heads" keep shop on Juliana street?

SERIOUS RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—On last Friday morning, while a train of loaded coal cars was passing over a trestle bridge of the Broad Top railroad, at Rough and Ready station, the trestle work gave way, precipitating the entire train, except the engine, a distance of fifty or sixty feet. Mr. Samuel Reed, brakesman, was buried beneath the wreck and instantly killed, and Alfred Houpt, also employed on the train, had one of his shoulders dislocated, and sustained other serious injury. The engineer escaped by opening the valves of the engine, thus breaking it from the rest of the train. One employee saved his life by jumping from one car to another till he reached the end of the train.

Since writing the above, we have information from a correspondent, who says, that the break in the trestle is not so serious as was at first announced. It is expected that the repairing would be so far completed, by Thursday of this week, so as to admit the passage of trains, as usual, over the road.

KEEP COOL!—If any one is anxious to see how the pulses of the Inquirer men beat, on the Grant ratification fizzle, let him look at the last issue of that delectable sheet. "Sap-suckers," "whelps," "leather-heads," "rascally," "cowards," "copperheads," and other choice selections from the fishwoman's dictionary, adorn the columns of that "moral" sheet Keep cool, gentlemen, the thermometer is going up. If you "go on" so now, at the outset of the campaign, where will you be in July and August, and where will you land in November? A free application of ice may relieve you now. Try it.

THE Commissioners have engaged the services of Edward Havilland, Esq., of York, Pa., to make plans, specifications and working drawings of the new alms house, about to be erected. Mr. Havilland has a reputation, second to none in the State, as an architect. The building is to be on the same plan as the York county alms house, which is considered a model, and which was designed by the above named gentleman.

ANOTHER FAILURE.—Last week we advised the man who attempted to get up a Grant ratification meeting, and failed, to try something else. He took our advice, and ran as delegate to the Impeachers' county nominating convention, but was again slaughtered in the house of his friends. We will make no further suggestions. Ungrateful party! Unlucky man! We shouldn't be surprised if he attempted to be chairman of the county committee.

Later.—He attempts—he fails.

The ladies, who attended the Hancock demonstration, on Saturday evening last, were not in sympathy with Mrs. Surratt.—Inquirer.

That is some consolation for you. There is no occasion for being jealous of the "Mrs. Surratt Nine" on that score.

RADICAL COUNTY CONVENTION.—The Radical Impeachers' Convention met here on Tuesday last. A number of districts were unrepresented, but, fortunately, persons who happened to be about town, were picked up as delegates to fill up the convention. The following nominations were made: Congress, John Cessna; Law Judge, D. Watson Rowe: Legislature, J. H. Longenecker; Commissioner, Lewis A. May; Poor Director, J. M. Lehman; Coroner, C. L. Buck. The nomination for Legislature was hotly contested, and resulted in again shelving Capt. Stucky. J. W. Lingenfelter was selected as chairman of the county committee.

THE LOCUSTS.—The seventeen year locusts are making thier appearance in this neighborhood in great numbers. The earth is perforated with their endeavors to reach the surface. Vast numbers of them have shed their covering and commenced their vocal cadences. The last time these notable insects visited us was in 1851, and their movements now are precisely similar. In burrowing upwards they build upon the top of the earth a habitation very much like that of a "mud wasp." In this "house" they remain until the proper time arrives to emerge from their shell, when they at once perch themselves upon the branches of trees, where they proceed to prepare for another generation. Who of us will live to see their next arrival.

HURRICANE.—Rainsburg and vicinity was visited, on last Saturday evening, by one of the most severe storms ever known in this region, amounting almost to a western hurricane. In the town the newly erected house of Emanual Swartzwelder was blown down, the roof of the house of Baltzer Sheely was torn off and carried away, while fences were scattered in every direction. In the woods adjoinging the borough trees were torn up by the roots, or snapped off like alder bushes by the violence of the storm.

THE NEW FIFTEEN CENT notes have just been turned out by the printing division of the Treasury. The notes are the same width, but somewhat shorter than the twenty-five cent notes. On the right side of the face is an excellent vignette of General Sherman. Between the vignettes are the words, "fifteen cents," prominently displayed and immediately beneath the figures "15." The back is similar in appearance to that of the twenty-five cent notes, with the denomination on each end.

TWO CHILDREN, a girl aged 13 and a boy aged 8 years, children of William Garton, of Buckwheat Valley, Juniata county, were burned to death on the 27th ult. The house caught fire about 12 o'clock at night, and the fire made such headway that all efforts to rescue them were unavailing.

WE see it stated in our exchanges, that according to all accounts, the grass crop of Pennsylvania will be the heaviest this year cut for the last ten. If there is anything in the old saying, "a wet, damp spring for grass," it ought to be.

BUGS.—Now is the time to head off the grape vine bug, whose ravages commence at the tender stage of the buds. Plaster of Paris, sprinkled on the dampened buds, is recommended by sufferers from these pests. The raids on fruit trees also begin about now, for which everybody has a remedy.

WE are assured that the firm of EASTMAN & KENDALL, 65 Hanover Street, Boston, Mass., advertised in our columns, is trustworthy and reliable. For 10 cts. they send a patent pen fountain, and check describing an article to be sold for $1. Their club system of selling goods, is becoming quite popular, particularly with the ladies. It is worthy of a trial.—Buffalo Gazette.

WE notice an old and reliable Boston firm, HARRIS & PLUMER, who advertise in our columns "The Success." They are a well known and responsible firm, and have incorporated the popular One Dollar Sale into their business as a means of reaching the masses. They offer superior inducements to Agents, and their advertisement is well worth the attention of our readers.

NOTICE TO DELINQUENTS.—We have placed our books and accounts in the hands of John P. Reed, Esq., of thsi place, for collection. All accounts for subscription for the year ending August 1, 1868, remaining unpaid, are included in the bills which Mr. Reed is authorized to collect. We have been compelled to resort to this course in order to obtain a settlement of our accounts. We have too much to do to attend to making out bills, and we are tired of dunning. Money we must have, as we have many debts to pay, and we desire to act honestly with our creditors. Therefore, we ask all to pay Mr. Reed, who can, and those who cannot, we ask to call and settle. If there is any thing in their accounts by which they consider themselves aggrieved, let them call on us, and we will make all right that is not right. Friends, let us have the old scores wiped out, and begin anew

WATSON—WHEREAS, the all Wise Ruler of the universe, in His inscrutable providence, has taken from this world our Brother, DR. W. H. WATSON; Therefore, Be it

Resolved, That we mourn with heartfelt and unaffected sorrow the death of our beloved brother, who, not only as a member of this order, but as a man, a neighbor and a friend, was most strongly and peculiarly endeared to us as an Odd-fellow. During the period of more than twenty-one years that he was connected with this Lodge, he beautifully illustrated the principles of our fraternity; he was grateful to his Creator, faithful to his country and fraternal to his fellow man; whilst as a man, a neighbor, and a friend, he was kind-hearted, generous, disinterested and self-sacrificing. He was an indulgent, loving father, a most affectionate son, and a warm-hearted brother; but to the whole community, ourselves and character of skilful and eminent physician and our families, he was rendered most dear, in his benevolent and sympathising attendant at the sick bed of our loved ones. Who is not sorry that our Brother, Doctor Wm. H. Watson, is dead.

"None knew him but to love him
None named him but to praise."

Resolved, That as a mark of respect for our deceased brother, the members of Bedford Lodge will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days and will attend his funeral in a body.

Resolved, That our Hall be draped in mourning for the period of thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished to the family of our deceased Brother and that they be published in both papers of Bedford.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

DR. S. I. TOBIAS' PULMONIC LIFE SYRUP, for the cure of Incipient Consumption, Coughs, colds, Croup, Asthma, Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, and General Debility. For several years I have been urged by kind freinds, who have used, and been benefited by, my Life Syrup, to put it up for general sale; but few know the large expense, now that the country is flooded with Patent Medicines, which attend the same For years past I was reluctant to do so, as the capital required would be large, and I did not wish to curtail the operations of my Venetian Liniment business. But, thanks to the generous public, who have appreciated my Venetian Liniment, I am now able to do so, without any detriment to my large business in that medicine. The foundation of my success I attribute to attending to the manufacture of every drop myself, and shall do the same in regard to my Pulmonic Life Syrup. The Ingredients are perfectly harmless, but act on the Lungs and Liver with astonishing effect. Price 75 cents. Depot, No. 56 Cortlandt Street, New York, near Jersey City Ferry. REASONS WHY.

We are enabled to offer superior inducements to purchasers of clothing, to which your attention is respectfully invited.

We have a business experience of more than 25 years, have been longer established than any house in our trade in Philadelphia.

We employ sufficient capital to make ALL PURCHASES FOR CASH, which, together with the fact that our large business enables us to buy in large amounts in first hands, thereby saving all profits of jobbers and middlemen, give us advantages in purchasing at the lowest rates, SHARED BY NO HOUSE IN OUR TRADE.

We sell only for cash and having no losses from bad debts to provide for, the paying customer is not TAXED TO HELP PAY THE DEBT OF ANOTHER who does not pay, as is inevitably the case in a business where credit is given.

We employ the best talent in all departments, which, with long experience, enable us to manufacture garments SUPERIOR IN EVERY RESPECT—equalled by few—surpassed by none.

We have the largest establishment for the manufacture and sale of clothing in Philadelphia, extending through from 518 Market street to 511 Minor street, occupied exclusively by ourselves, also a branch store at 600 Broadway, New York, and keep at all times of MEDICAL.—DR. A. S. SMITH, having resumed the Practice of Medicine, solicits a generous share of the patronage of the community. Office in his residence, at St Clairsville.

He would call the attention of the public, and to those more immediately interested to the following: His health being too delicate to bear much of the fatigues and exposures consequent on general practice, he has adopted a speciality in the profession.
Soon after commencing practice, some twenty years since, he was attracted by the almost universality of female complaints, both in the married and single state. Partly from natural inclination, and in order to obtain success in practice, these complaints were made the subject of incessant study. These alterations, displacements and deranged functions of the organs peculiar to the female, are owing to that refined sense of delicacy on the part of the female, who, ignorant of the consequences, prefers to suffer in silence rather than expose her situation. Seldom cured by the general practitioner, who is prevented by this delicacy from acquiring by experience that tact and skill necessary to discriminate the exact change present, and contents himself with prescribing for the deranged functions, or overlooking the cause, simply for attendant nervous disorders, founding his prescriptions on a Plethoric Anaemonic state of the general system and the result is no benefit, as the number of the long suffering females bears ample testimony. Believing that he has, from long and special attention paid to them, acquired that skill in discriminating and experience in treating, he solicits the suffering to give him a call. No charges for consultation or examination. Visits made to all parts of the county.
Applications for medicines can be made in writing by accompanying stamp for return letter.—Medicines sent when desired. TERMS invariably cash for all medicines and instruments.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED. Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriages, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.
☞Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.
The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
☞This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land
Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers, ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGANS are still ahead of all competitors and stand unrivalled in POWER, PURITY OF TONE and BRILLIANCY, and all other points which go to make a first-class instrument.

The "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is the greatest of all modern improvements on reed instruments. It CHARMS and SURPRISES all who hear it, by its wonderful resemblance to the HUMAN VOICE. Do not confound this with the common tremolo in use. It is entirely different, and far superior to any other.

The effect of your "Tremolo" is entirely new to me, and is certainly the best I ever heard.—GEO. W. MORGAN. [The first Organist of America.
No Tremolo has yet been invented that will in any degree compare with this for beauty of effect. In fact, it seems to me to be absolutely perfect.—WM. A. JOHNSON, Pipe Organ Builder.
Estey's Cottage Organs are without a superior for exceedingly quick articulation and round tone—the essential features in instruments of this class.—GEO. JARDINE, Pipe Organ Builder.
The Cotttge Organ is the best of its class I ever saw, and the best adapted for church music of any in use.—C. HEINTZ, Organist, Findlay, O.
I am much pleased with the Cottage Organ which I purchased from you; it combines sweetness and power in an unusual degree, and is quite a favorite in our family circle.—BISHOP SIMPSON.
We know no organs of the class which possess so many valuable qualities.—INDEPENDENT.
For the parlor, its sweetness is remarkable; for the church it has a power more organ-like than anything we have seen.—METHODIST.
